GLOBAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT FOR
EQUIPMENT AND MATERIAL PURCHASES

1.2 In the event of any conflict among the documents comprising the Purchase Order, the order of precedence shall be as follows: the Order, the Special Conditions, these Terms and Conditions. Notwithstanding the order of precedence, Seller shall check Purchase Order and all other documents upon receipt, and shall advise Buyer of any inconsistencies. Buyer's decision on any inconsistencies referred by Seller shall be final. In the event of any conflict between any other of the documents comprising the Purchase Order, as amended from time to time, the most recent document shall take precedence.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF ENTIRE AGREEMENT; COMMUNICATIONS

2.1 The Purchase Order constitutes the sole and entire agreement between the parties. The Purchase Order shall be binding upon the parties upon the earlier of the receipt of Seller's acknowledgment of Seller's acceptance thereof or commencement of Seller's performance of the work. No terms or conditions contained in Seller's acknowledgment or other communication shall bind Buyer unless expressly accepted by it in writing. Seller shall check the order and any other documents comprising the Purchase Order which are submitted to Seller by Buyer, upon receipt thereof. In case of inconsistency between the documents Seller will revert to Buyer for written clarification prior to acceptance. All communications in connection with the Purchase order shall be in English.

3. SCOPE OF WORK

3.1 Seller shall manufacture, supply and deliver all the equipment and perform all the work required, or necessarily implied, strictly in accordance with the Purchase Order. Where the specification indicates that the equipment as delivered by Seller is required for a particular purpose, the equipment will be fit for that purpose.

3.2 The equipment and all required or necessarily implied work shall be complete in all respects (except in respects expressly excluded by the specification). If any detail shown on drawings which are a part of the documentation is omitted from the text of the specification or vice versa, Seller shall, notwithstanding such omission, supply such detail and shall be deemed to have allowed for the same in the price.

3.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Buyer, all the equipment shall be new and unused and shall be designed and manufactured in accordance with the specification and/or documentation. Where no standard or codes of practice are specified, the equipment and all associated work shall be in accordance with the generally accepted best codes of practice of the industry concerned.

3.4 Seller shall comply with all applicable regulations of the country in which the equipment is to be installed. Buyer will advise country prior to placement of Purchase Order.

4. DOCUMENTATION AND NONDISCLOSURE

4.1 Seller shall prepare and submit to Buyer the documentation. The cost of such preparation and submission is included in the price.

4.2 All documentation shall show, in a suitable legend block, the Purchase Order number and equipment reference number as indicated in the order.

4.3 Buyer has the right to approve documentation but such approval shall not relieve Seller of any of its responsibilities under the Purchase order. No deviation from or modification to, the specification, or documents supplied to, or approved by Buyer will be made by seller without the prior written agreement of Buyer.

4.4 The documentation shall become (and remain) Buyer's property from the point of its creation. The documentation and the specification shall not be copied, or shown to any third party (other than sub-contractors in connection with the Purchase Order) without the prior written consent of Buyer. The documentation and the specification shall only be used by Seller, or such sub-contractors, in fulfillment of the Purchase Order.

5. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING

5.1 Except in respect of goods and services bought or procured in the normal course of Seller's business, Seller will not sub-let or sub-contract any material part of the Purchase Order without Buyer's prior written consent. No sub-letting or sub-contracting will relieve Seller of any of its obligations under the Purchase Order. Seller will ensure that all material provisions of the Purchase order as such pertain to the portion of the Purchase Order which is the subject of the sub-letting or sub-contracting are incorporated into each sub-order or subcontract, including preserving the rights and benefits of Buyer as further described in Section 5.4. If requested by Buyer, Seller shall supply un-priced, certified copies of such sub-orders and subcontracts to Buyer immediately when it has been issued.

5.2 If Buyer nominates one or more sub-contractors to perform certain parts of the Purchase Order, seller shall employ such sub-contractor(s) to perform such parts unless Buyer agrees, in writing, otherwise.

5.3 Seller shall not assign or transfer any, or any part, of its rights or obligations under the Purchase Order without Buyer's prior written consent. Any purported assignment or transfer to which Buyer has not granted its consent will be void and of no effect and shall entitle Buyer to terminate the Purchase Order.

5.4 Seller shall be obligated to include in any subcontract or sub-order the rights and remedies which are available to Buyer under the Purchase Order, including in particular but without limitation rights and remedies pertaining to termination of the work on whole or in part; access to Seller's premises for purposes of removing equipment, drawings, and semi-finished work; Seller's warranties, and shall include in all such subcontracts and sub-orders the free assignability of such rights and remedies.

6.2 The equipment and all required or necessary documentation shall be completed and delivered at the time(s) specified in, and otherwise in accordance with, the Purchase Order. Seller shall not deliver any part of the equipment before the specified delivery date unless Buyer agrees in writing. 6.3 Any failure of performance by either party shall not constitute default hereunder or give rise to any claim for damages or otherwise if, and to the extent, caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the party affected, including but not limited to, acts of compliance with acts of governmental authority, acts of God, national or official union strikes or other concerted acts of workmen, fires, floods, explosions, riots, war or armed conflict declared or undeclared, rebellion and sabotage. 7.1 In the event that Seller (a) fails to deliver the equipment or documentation meeting the requirements of the Purchase Order on or before the dates specified, or (b) the equipment, when tested in accordance with the performance requirements of the Purchase Order, fails to meet these performance requirements, Buyer will suffer damages in an amount that is not susceptible to calculation with reasonable certainty. Therefore, any liquidated damages set forth in the Purchase Order represent a reasonable determination of the amount of damages that Buyer will suffer, and are not penalties. Seller hereby waives any defense to Buyer's recovery of such liquidated damages on the basis actual damages are ascertainable or that such liquidated damages do not represent a reasonable determination of Buyer's damages or are penalties.

7.2 Seller will be liable to pay liquidated damages for late delivery of equipment as stated in the Purchase Order. Unless otherwise expressly specified, the rate of liquidated damages for late delivery of equipment shall be at a rate of 1% of the total price per week of delay up to a maximum of 10% of the total price. Such liquidated damages may be deducted by Buyer from any monies due to Seller. Payment of the said liquidated damages shall be in full and final satisfaction of any financial liability Seller may have to Buyer for the late delivery; provided, however, the remedy of liquidated damages is in addition to Buyer's right to cancel for Seller's default under Section 15.1 and exercise the remedy set forth in Section 15.2.

7.3 Seller will be liable to pay liquidated damages for late delivery of documentation as agreed by Buyer and Seller, and as stated in the Purchase Order. The amount of such damages will be clearly defined in the Purchase Order.

8. VARIATIONS AND CHANGES

8.1 Buyer has the right at any time by notice in writing, to direct Seller to add to or omit from, or otherwise vary, the Purchase Order. Where Seller receives any such request to change which would occasion an alteration to the price or delivery date then seller will advise Buyer in writing within five working days giving the total price of such alteration and any change in the delivery date. Buyer will decide whether or not the variation will be carried out and will confirm its instructions in writing to Seller in the form of a Change Order Instruction. Seller will take no action in performing the variation in question until such instruction has been given by Buyer.

9. BUYERS FREE-ISSUE MATERIAL

9.1 If Buyer free-issues any material to Seller for incorporation into the equipment, Seller shall inspect such material on receipt for any obvious signs of damage and for dimensional compliance with any applicable documentation supplied. If Seller finds material is damaged or does not comply with the documentation, it shall immediately inform Buyer in writing. While free-issue material is under Seller's control, Seller shall bear risk of loss, but title to such material shall remain vested in Buyer.

9.2 Such free issue material shall be properly marked as property of Buyer and be used by Seller, or its sub-contractors solely in connection with the Purchase Order.

No inspection or test made or witnessed, and no release note or other certificate given, by Buyer, owner or their representatives will relieve Seller of its obligation to deliver the equipment in strict accordance with the requirements of the Purchase Order nor relieve Seller of its liability in the event Seller does not fulfill such obligation.

10.3 Seller must comply, at time of purchase order acceptance, with the latest revision of the Buyer's worldwide standard 4WPI-M00001 "General Piping Material Purchase Specification" and 4WGN-20001 "Supplier Quality Requirements" related to "Country of Origin" for qualified or acceptable materials used in fabrication. A copy of these standards is available at <http://www.airproducts.com/AboutUs/SupplierInformation/GeneralPurchaseOrderInformation.htm>. The use of materials from unqualified countries requires approval in writing from the Buyer.

11. PROTECTION AND PACKING

11.1 Unless stated otherwise in the Purchase Order, Seller shall provide suitable protection and packing for the equipment to ensure its safe delivery in accordance with the Purchase Order. The cost of protection and packing, transportation or storage is deemed included in the price unless expressly stated otherwise.

13. WARRANTY

13.1 Seller warrants that the equipment will conform to the Purchase Order, will be fit and sufficient for the purpose intended, of satisfactory quality, merchantable, and free from any defects in design, material or workmanship for a period of twelve (12) months after being placed in operation, or twenty four (24) months from date of delivery of the equipment or completion of the work, whichever occurs first. If Buyer discovers any defect or other failure of the equipment to conform to the warranties contained in the Purchase Order, Seller, upon written notice from Buyer, shall promptly correct such defect or nonconformity by redesigning, repairing or replacing the defective portions of the equipment to the reasonable satisfaction of Buyer. All costs incidental to such remedial action shall be borne by Seller. These shall include but not be limited to costs pertaining to:

- Transportation and transportation insurance
- Repair
- Re-testing of the equipment

If within twenty-four (24) hours after notification by Buyer of defect or other failure of the equipment, Seller fails to perform or where additional time is necessary, fails to commence and pursue with all diligence, the necessary redesign, repair, replacement, reperformance or tests, then Buyer without prejudice to its other rights or remedies, may perform or cause to be performed the same, and Seller shall reimburse Buyer for all costs incurred by Buyer therefore. Seller shall be excused from its remedial obligations pursuant to this article to the extent it demonstrates that remedial work was made necessary as the result of (a) alteration, accident or abuse by persons other than Seller or those under Seller's supervision, or (b) Buyer's material failure to store, handle, install, operate and maintain the equipment in accordance with any operations and maintenance manual or other written instructions supplied by Seller.

13.3 Where a defect has arisen during the warranty period, or existed at the date of delivery, but is not then apparent, Seller's liability will not cease merely because notice of such defect was not given to Seller within such period.

13.4 Nothing contained in the purchase order shall limit any warranty which Seller is deemed to have made by operation of law.

13.5 The rights and remedies for breach of warranty established by the purchase order will be freely assignable by Buyer to Owner, in whole or in part, and all such rights and remedies will after such assignment is made, be enforceable by owner directly against Seller.

14.2 Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Buyer and Owner, and their directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives (the "Indemnitees") from and against any claim, demand, loss, expense, and cost, including legal fees, arising out of personal injury or impairment of health, including death, or any loss of or damage to property and any economic harm or loss resulting therefrom, suffered by Seller, and subcontractor or sub-supplier of Seller, any director, officer, employee, agent, representative or invitee of Seller or of any subcontractor or sub-supplier of Seller, relating in any way to this Purchase Order, however such injury, impairment of health, or death, or property damage or loss, may be caused including, without limitation, where caused by the negligence or other actionable wrongdoing on the part of any Indemnitees or the condition of the premises of Buyer or Owner.

15. SELLER'S DEFAULT

15.1 If Buyer has evidence of Seller's inability to deliver in accordance with the Purchase Order, or if Seller fails promptly to correct any defect or deficiency in the equipment, or if Seller, in Buyer's reasonable opinion, is not making sufficient progress to ensure completion by the delivery date stated in the Purchase Order (or, if such date has passed); or, if Seller has refused to carry out the reasonable instructions of Buyer; or if Seller has breached any provision of the Purchase Order, then Buyer may give Seller written notice of default. If Seller has not made good the default (or taken all reasonable steps towards making good the default) within five (5) working days following the date of issue of such written notice of default, Buyer shall be entitled to terminate the Purchase Order in whole or in part.

15.2 If Buyer terminates the Purchase Order, in whole or in part, Buyer shall be entitled to obtain the equipment which was to be supplied under the terminated portion of the Purchase Order from any other source. Seller shall be liable for all costs incurred by Buyer in procuring such substitute equipment which are in excess of what would have been the cost to Buyer if such equipment had been supplied under the Purchase Order.

15.3 If Buyer exercises any right to terminate the Purchase Order (in whole or part) as set forth in the Purchase Order or as otherwise available to Buyer, Buyer shall be entitled to enter Seller's premises and, notwithstanding any lien, to take possession of and remove therefrom all equipment, whether complete or not, which has become the property of Buyer pursuant to the Purchase Order. The cost to Buyer of so doing shall at Buyer's option be repaid to Buyer by Seller or shall be deducted from any money due from Buyer to Seller under the Purchase Order.

16. TERMINATION/CANCELLATION

16.1 Notwithstanding any other provision in the Purchase Order, Buyer may terminate the Purchase Order in whole or in part at any time by giving notice in writing to Seller, which termination shall be effective upon receipt of Buyer's notice by Seller, which in the case of notice by telefacsimile shall be deemed to have occurred upon the transmission thereof as evidenced by Buyer's written record of transmission, and in the case of notice by registered mail shall be deemed to have occurred two (2) business days from the date of mailing. In the event of termination under this or Article 15, Seller will immediately stop performance of the Purchase Order including any parts being performed under sub-orders and, at Buyer's option, assign all outstanding sub-orders to Buyer. Buyer shall have the right to receive upon demand all documentation, the equipment and other items associated with the purchase order in their then current state of completion and Seller shall take all steps necessary so that such receipt by Buyer occurs in a timely manner. Buyer will not be liable for any work done or expenses incurred by Seller after the effective date of termination, unless such work or expenses are authorized in advance by Buyer in writing. In the event of termination under this article, subject to Section 17.1, Buyer will pay Seller for all portions of the equipment completed in accordance with the Purchase Order as of the effective date of termination and shall reimburse Seller for its costs reasonably incurred by Seller in connection with work in progress at the effective date of termination as well as any other costs reasonably incurred by Seller directly in connection with the prompt termination of performance to the extent Seller can provide to Buyer written substantiation of such costs. However, under no circumstances shall the total of the sums payable by Buyer to Seller under the Purchase Order exceed the price.

17. ADDITIONAL RIGHTS ON TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

17.1 If on termination of this Purchase Order for convenience, Seller has in its possession any completed portions of the equipment Buyer shall elect either to take delivery thereof and pay Seller a proportionate part of the price, or not to take delivery and pay Seller the difference (if any) between the market value thereof and the said proportion of the price at the date of termination.

17.2 If, on termination of this Purchase Order for convenience, Seller has in its possession any raw material or part-finished goods, Buyer shall elect either to require Seller to complete and deliver the same to Buyer and pay Seller a proportionate part of the price, or require Seller not to complete and deliver, and pay Seller a proportionate part of the price in respect of work properly completed less the market value thereof at the date of termination.

17.3 If, on termination of this Purchase Order for convenience, Seller has placed firm orders for any goods which are not in its possession, Buyer shall elect either to take assignment of Seller's rights and obligations under such orders or pay the cost, if any, of discharging Seller's obligations thereunder. Seller shall keep these costs to a minimum.

17.4 Seller shall include in all subcontracts and sub-orders a termination for convenience provision substantially the same as that contained in the Purchase Order.

18. REMEDIES

18.1 The remedies herein reserved to Buyer shall be cumulative, and additional to any other or further remedies provided in law or at equity. No waiver of a breach of any of the provisions of this contract shall constitute a waiver of any other breach, or of such provision.

19. NONDISCLOSURE AND ENDORSEMENT

19.1 Seller shall not make use of drawings, specifications, data and other information furnished to it by Buyer, except in performance of Seller's permitted work on behalf of Buyer, including, but not limited to, performance under a Purchase Order and/or Request for Quotation/Proposal. Upon completion, cancellation or termination of the Purchase Order, Seller shall promptly furnish to Buyer all documentation, and shall return to Buyer all information furnished by Buyer in connection with the performance of the Purchase Order, and shall not retain or permit others to retain any reproduction or copy thereof save for an archival copy of the documentation. Seller shall not disclose any documentation, information furnished by Buyer, Buyer's name or Owner's name to any third party and shall make no further use thereof (of any information derived therefrom), either directly or indirectly, without Buyer's prior written consent, except in connection with the performance of the Purchase Order.
